Policies

AS REVISED ON MAY 28, 2020

The Constitution of the Sun Coast Police Benevolent Association, Inc. (PBA)

PREAMBLE

WE, the members of the various law enforcement agencies and public employees in Pinellas County, Florida, the State of Florida, employed by the State of Florida, its political subdivisions and municipalities, do hereby associate ourselves for the following purpose:

To support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the State of Florida: to inculcate loyalty and foster the impartial enforcement of law and order; to improve the individual proficiency of our members in the performance of their duties; to encourage social and educational activities among our members; to create a tradition of esprit de corps, insuring fidelity to duty under all conditions and circumstances; to cultivate a spirit of mutual helpfulness among our membership and the people we serve; to increase the efficiency of public service and thus more firmly establish the citizen's confidence in the public service that is dedicated to the protection of their lives and property.

ARTICLE I

NAME, OBJECTIVE AND PURPOSES

Section 1. This organization shall be known as the SUN COAST POLICE BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION, INC. (PBA) and its offices and meeting places shall be in Pinellas County, Florida, unless otherwise authorized by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. The general objectives and purposes of this organization shall be to promote professionalism among law enforcement officers and public employees; to influence the youth of Florida in an effort to combat delinquency; to further Police-Community relations by informing the citizens of Florida of the day to day stress and problems of law enforcement officers; and to represent officers and other public employees in legal, labor, legislative, and political matters which affect the law enforcement profession and/or the interests and well-being of the public employees.

Section 3. The PBA shall not participate in, or condone strikes or cessation of duties by law enforcement officers or law enforcement support personnel. The Association President shall have the right to immediately revoke the membership status of any such member who advocates a strike or work stoppage. An individual whose membership has been revoked pursuant to this provision may petition the Association Board of Directors to have membership reinstated; however, such reinstatement shall only occur after appearance before the Board of Directors and upon its approval of reinstatement.

ARTICLE II

ORGANIZATION, MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The classes of membership in this Association shall be Active, Auxiliary, Honorary, Life, and Retired. The Bylaws of this Association shall provide for the appointment, regulation, conduct and rights of each class membership.

Section 2. All sworn and retired law enforcement officers and law enforcement support personnel employed by a Florida public employer, and retired public employees shall be eligible for membership in the PBA. Membership shall not be denied to any person based solely on sex, color, religion, age, nationality or creed.

Section 3. Any law enforcement officer or support personnel public employee who is recognized as a managerial or confidential employee, but who was a PBA member in good standing prior to becoming a managerial or confidential employee shall, so long as their dues are current and remains a member in good standing, be entitled only to the Legal Defense Benefit as provided by the PBA. Law enforcement officers or support personnel public employees who are managerial or confidential employees shall not be eligible to hold elected office.

ARTICLE III

The Treasurer shall perform other such duties and functions as directed by the Chairman of the PAC.

D. General Duties and Functions of the Officers of the PAC

1. The officers of the PAC (Chairman, Secretary, and Treasurer) shall have general supervision over the affairs, activities, and funds of the PAC; and shall carry out the current policy or those that may be established by the Board of Directors for the PBA.

Section 6. Dissolution of the PAC

- A. The PAC may be dissolved at any time by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors for the PBA.
- B. Upon dissolution of the PAC, all assets of the PAC shall be distributed to the general fund (operating account) of the PBA.
- C. No individual PAC member, officer, private individual, or individual Director of the PBA shall be entitled to any share of the distribution of the assets of the PAC upon such dissolution.

POLICY 2020-5

REPRESENTATION UNDER FLPBA LEGAL DEFENSE BENEFIT

IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA to require every member wishing representation provided by the Florida PBA Legal Defense Benefit or the Sun Coast Police Benevolent Association Legal Defense Benefit to contact the PBA office and make a verbal request for an appointment with the Attorney. Once the request is reduced to writing, evaluated, and approved for coverage, the PBA will notify the Attorney and the member. After which, the member may contact the Attorney for an appointment concerning the covered legal matter.

POLICY 2020-6

INTERNAL AFFAIRS REPRESENTATION

Section 1. IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA to provide assistance to any member who, as determined by the PBA, has been unjustly or harshly aggrieved, disciplined, or dismissed.

Section 2. IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA to not provide assistance to any member who, as determined by the PBA, has been justly and fairly treated in matters of grievance, discipline, or dismissal.

Section 3. IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA to require every member who is the subject of a complaint and being investigated by their department, to notify the Executive Director and/or President of the PBA

Section 4.

Definition: The term legal assistance and representation as used herein applies to processing contract grievances, representing members at administrative disciplinary hearings and certain judicial actions on behalf of members.

Background: The Association desires to provide fair legal assistance and representation for all members; however, there exists no absolute right for anyone to receive extraordinary aid or legal assistance. In establishing this policy, the Board of Directors recognizes that members are entitled to know when legal assistance and representation can be expected and how extensive that aid will be. It is further recognized that the Association does have a duty to members to make sure that all procedural protections are safeguarded. Thus, whether legal assistance is provided or not, members retain the privilege of being assisted by the PBA at any and all administrative interrogational hearings.

Guidelines: A member is entitled to assistance only when the matter arises out of the scope of their employment (wages, hours and conditions of employment) or where their off-duty conduct has resulted or could result in discipline.

Section 5. In order to be fair and impartial to every member who might be in need of assistance, certain rules must be observed, which will be:

- A. The member shall notify the Executive Director of the PBA immediately upon having knowledge of possible need for assistance. Any unreasonable delay in notifying the Sun Coast PBA will disqualify the member for legal assistance and/or representation as defined.
- B. The member shall make any request for assistance to the PBA Executive Director, as the President's designee.
- C. The Executive Director shall have the power to investigate the situation, by means they feel necessary, and to make the initial decision as to whether to provide assistance or not.
- D. The decision of the Executive Director shall be immediately conveyed to the President, who shall decide to provide assistance or not, and who shall consult with the Executive Board before committing the PBA to representation beyond the initial grievance process as provided in the members collective bargaining agreement or the Sheriff's civil service procedures.

- E. If the member is denied assistance, they shall be immediately notified by the Executive Director and they may appeal to the President and the Executive Board.
- F. If, after appearing before the President and the Executive Board, the member is still denied assistance, they may appeal directly to the Board of Directors, and appear at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors to present their appeal. The decision of the Board of Directors will be final and binding on the member and PBA.
- G. In the event the member is denied assistance the Executive Director shall process the member's grievance for the limited purpose of preserving the time limits as provided in the member's collective bargaining agreement or the Sheriff's civil service procedures.
- H. Should a member fail to follow the advice provided by the PBA representative, it shall be cause for the denial of representation.
- I. Deception or misrepresentation in any matter that concerns the PBA shall void any ongoing legal assistance and/or representation or any future assistance in that matter, and shall be cause for charges leading to expulsion from the PBA.
- J. The member must accept the Association attorney if the Association is to pay; unless the acquisition of outside legal assistance is approved.
- K. Legal assistance will not usually extend to the appellate level; only the administrative and trial level will be covered.

POLICY 2020-7

AUTHORITY TO SIGN CHECKS

IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA that the Executive Board and the Executive Director shall have the authority to sign all checks for disbursement of funds.

POLICY 2020-8

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA to accept applications in writing for membership for all new applicants as well as those from prior members of the organization without prejudice.

Section 2. These applications will be voted on at a meeting of the Board of Directors, or if impractical to do so, electronically and shall be accepted unless the application is questioned by any member of the Board of Directors or by a member in good standing.

Section 3. In such cases where the application is questioned, the applicant will be sent a letter advising them that there has been a question raised in regard to the application, and that they are required to appear in front of the Board of Directors to answer these questions. Failure to appear is automatic denial.

POLICY 2020-9

FULL TIME REPRESENTATIVES

IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA that in the best interest of the organization, representatives of the officers and public employees of the various agencies shall be required to be members in good standing and full time officers of the unit they represent.

POLICY 2020-10

INTENT TO RUN FOR PBA OFFICE

Section 1. IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA that those members filing the “Intent to Run” form for nomination as a representative, have ten (10) signatures from PBA members in good standing of the agency they desire to represent. Agencies with less than twenty PBA members shall be required to have one-half (1/2) of the total PBA members signatures, the remaining signatures coming from the current Board of Directors.

Section 2. Those members eligible to run for any of the Executive Board (President, Senior Vice President, Executive Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer) will file the “Intent to Run” form for nomination requiring ten (10) signatures from current PBA Board of Directors to include the Executive Board. In any event, no qualified person shall seek the election to more than one office during any election cycle.

POLICY 2020-11

BOARD OF DIRECTORS’ MEETING

Section1. The Board of Directors will conduct their meeting under the guidelines of Robert’s Rules of Order (Revised).

Section 2. All members in good standing (dues paid and not under any disciplinary action from the Board of Directors) shall have the right and opportunity to speak at any Board of Directors’ meeting, subject to the following provisions:

1. The President shall determine the allotted time based on the issue and the number of speakers. In no case will the allotted time be less than three (3) minutes per person.
2. If the issue is of an importance that there are more than five (5) speakers on the issue, the President may call a Special Meeting to address the issue(s).
3. The Board of Directors, by majority vote, may extend the time of any speaker.
4. A member may address any issue or concern.

POLICY 2020-12

PBA ELECTIONS

Section 1. IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA, that there is at least one (1) member of the Board of Directors from each agency.

Section 2. The decision as to the number of Board seats available in those agencies over 100 members shall be based on the membership count as of August 15 of each year.

POLICY 2020-14

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

IT SHALL BE the policy of the PBA to foster, maintain, and promote equal employment opportunity. The Association will select candidates for employment on the basis of candidates' qualifications for the job and treat them with respect to compensation and opportunity for training and advancement, including upgrading and promotion, without regard to sex, race, color, religion or national origin, age and sexual orientation. Equality in such opportunities continues to be the basic policy of the Association.

POLICY 2020-15

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Section 1. IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA to ensure that all employees are able to enjoy a work environment free from all forms of discrimination, including sexual harassment. Employees who have experienced sexual harassment shall have the right to file complaints with the Executive Board and have those complaints properly investigated. Employees who are found guilty of sexually harassing other employees shall be subject to appropriate sanctions, depending on the circumstances. Those sanctions may range from counseling up to and including termination.

Section 2. Sexual harassment consists of unsolicited, offensive behavior involving sexual overtures or conduct, either verbal or physical. It does not refer to occasional comments of a socially acceptable nature; it refers to behavior that is not welcome, that is personally offensive, that lowers the morale and, therefore interferes with the work environment. As explained in EEOC guidelines;

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitutes sexual harassment when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term of the individual's employment, (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a basis for employment decisions affecting such individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Section 3. Members who engage in sexual harassment of employees are subject to termination by the PBA, if found guilty of the complaint.

POLICY 2020-16

Section 3. They shall enjoy the rights and benefits listed below.

Section 4. As retired officer(s) they shall not have the right to vote on any issues that affect active members or collective bargaining issues.

Section 5. Retired officers shall be elected by their members as provided in Policy 2020-12 and shall be members of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. The dues of retired officers shall be set by the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Before a retired person can be admitted as a member, they must first present to the Executive Board verification that they have retired from a law enforcement agency.

SCHEDULE OF BENEFITS

1. Legal Defense Benefit (for legal matters stemming from immediate past employment, for four (4) years from the date of retirement)
2. Option to enroll in Dental Plan at same cost as active members (if available)
3. Invitation to the Christmas Party and PBA events at same cost as active members
4. Same advertising benefit in the Informant as provided for active members

POLICY 2020-17

MILITARY DUTY CALL BACK

Section 1. IT SHALL BE the policy of the PBA that those members of the Association serving with the military reserve or national guard, who are involuntarily called back to active duty in the military or national guard for a period of time in excess of sixty (60) days, shall be carried as an inactive member of the Association which is in compliance with Policy 1-96 of the Florida PBA. Such individual's dues shall be waived during the period of active duty.

Section 2. It shall be the responsibility of the member to notify the Association of the call-back to active military or national guard duty and the anticipated length of service. Upon return to their former duties, the member's dues shall commence at the beginning of the month following the individual's return to their former duties.

Section 3. The PBA will pay the basic dues of those PBA members while on active duty status.

POLICY 2020-18

COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE MEDIA

IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA that:

1. The President of the Association or his designee will approve any and all communications with the media.
2. Before such approval can be given, the President shall be fully apprised of the media inquiry leading to the communication and shall be fully briefed as to the purpose of the media inquiry.
3. Once approval is given, the media seeking the inquiry may be contacted and a comment made within the parameters as established.
4. There shall be no "off the record" communications with the media.
5. No member of the Association, unless authorized, shall communicate to the media concerning the Association.
6. Should any Association member or employee violate this policy, the member may be subject to expulsion from the Association and the employee subject to discipline by the President.

POLICY 2020-19

TRAVEL

PBA members and employees may travel on PBA business. This policy establishes applicable guidelines for travel expenses that are intended to allow members and employees to travel in reasonable comfort. Violation of this policy could result in certain travel expenses being absorbed as personal obligations.

1. Members and employees must obtain advanced authorization from the President or his designee before incurring any travel expenses for trips outside the Tampa Bay metropolitan area (Pinellas, Hillsborough, Pasco, and Manatee counties), which will involve an expense beyond mileage reimbursement. When travel is authorized, air flights, lodging accommodations, rental cars, meals and entertainment shall not inure to the personal benefit of any member.
2. Lodging, meals and entertainment, shall be limited to necessary and reasonable expenses and which are directly related to the meeting being attended, and shall be limited to the member or employee only.
3. Should the member or employee stay at the lodging accommodation before or after the meeting for which approval has been granted, they will personally be responsible to pay for any and all expenses thereby incurred.
4. When a member or employee uses their personal vehicle, they will be reimbursed at the current IRS standard mileage reimbursement rate.

DEATH BENEFIT

1. IT SHALL be the policy of the PBA that in the event a member in good standing in the PBA should die, $2,500.00 may be paid to their beneficiary upon request by the beneficiary on file with the PBA.
2. It shall be the responsibility of the member to notify their beneficiary of this benefit, such that the beneficiary is aware upon death.

DONATION BENEFIT

Section 1. To continue SCPBA's commitment to our members and to our community, and to streamline SCPBA's charitable giving protocol, members must route any charitable donation requests through an Executive Board member or a member of the Board of Directors. Executive Board and Board of Director members may apply to the President to receive a one-time, annual two hundred and fifty dollar ($250) donation benefit.

Section 2. The determination whether to grant this donation benefit is solely within the discretion of the President or his designee.

Section 3. The purpose of this donation benefit is to empower Executive Board and Board of Director members to use precious SCPBA charitable dollars to donate to local causes. The local cause must directly benefit a SCPBA member or their family. It must also promote SCPBA in a positive light which is consistent with SCPBA's objectives and purposes. Examples include local youth sports league sponsorships, local charitable organization board memberships, or similarly local, non-political causes.

Section 4. An Executive Board or Board of Director member who applies for this donation benefit on behalf of himself or a member must do so in writing (an e-mail is sufficient) and must describe the ways in which the donation will promote SCPBA. Great preference will be given to sponsorships or causes in which SCPBA's logo is displayed, for example, on a team jersey, a banner, a website, and/or promotional materials.

AMENDED AND PASSED (~~FAILED~~) ON THIS 28TH DAY OF MAY 2020.
